HARFORD COUNTY
PROUDLY SUPPORTS
Fisher House Foundation
Bob Cassilly, County Executive

Ladies and gentlemen, on behalf of the Major General (MG) Harry Greene Chapter of the Association of the United States Army (AUSA), I welcome you to tonight's Gala. For 19 consecutive years, the Monmouth and Aberdeen Communities have staged this event in support of the Fisher House Foundation, which builds comfort homes where military & veteran families can stay free of charge, while a loved one is in the hospital. Since its inception, the Foundation has saved military and veterans' families an estimated $575 million in out-of-pocket costs for lodging and transportation.

We gather tonight in the grand tradition of the military taking care of its own. In a changing, dangerous world that can be difficult to understand, one thing remains certain: our military will always be there to defend our freedoms and our homeland at any cost. Their sacrifices can never be repaid, but we can in some small measure lessen their burden by giving magnanimously to this worthwhile cause that provides much needed support to our wounded service members, Veterans, and their families. What we are doing tonight is not just raising funds—it is a fitting gesture of gratitude to those wounded heroes and their families who have selflessly given so much and now need our help.

We are incredibly grateful to this year's corporate, military, and government sponsors. I would like to take this opportunity to thank those of you who have been so generous over the years and carried on our enviable record of fundraising for the Foundation! We are humbled by your longstanding partnership and tremendous response to our call for giving in 2023. And we are just as excited to welcome so many new sponsors this year. With your help, we hope to exceed last year's fantastic contribution of $182K to Fisher House!

Of course, none of this would be possible without our wonderful volunteers. Theirs is not just a sacrifice of time—it is a passion for this cause. Their dedication, resourcefulness, and talents in bringing all of this about is, to use the current vernacular, epic. If you have the chance, please thank them for it, and if you know them at all, they never stand on their laurels. In fact, they have already begun work on next year's gala, "Roaring '20s."

Thank you again for joining us tonight. We have a fun-filled night in store, so relax, empty your wallets and pocketbooks for Fisher House, and please enjoy this evening's Ultimate Tailgate!

Bob Gutjahr, President,

Major General Harry Greene, Aberdeen Chapter of AUSA

THE FISHER HOUSE FOUNDATION

A Fisher House is “a home away from home” for families of patients receiving medical care at major military and VA medical centers. The homes are normally located within walking distance of the treatment facility or have transportation available. There are 94 Fisher Houses located on 25 military installations and 35 VA medical centers. Many more houses are under construction or in design. Typically, the houses are 5,000 to 16,800 square foot homes donated by the Fisher family and Fisher House Foundation. Each house is designed to provide up to 21 suites. All are professionally furnished and decorated in the tone and style of the local region. The houses can accommodate 16 to 42 family members. They feature a common kitchen, laundry facilities, spacious dining room and an inviting living room with library and toys for children. Newest houses are 100% handicap accessible and include elevators. A Fisher House is a temporary residence and is not a treatment facility, hospice, or counseling center.

Fisher House Foundation ensures that there is never a lodging fee. Since inception, the program has saved military and veterans’ families an estimated $575 million in out-of-pocket costs for lodging and transportation. Over 455,000 families have stayed at a Fisher House since its inception in 1990, and that number continues to grow each year as Fisher House Foundation builds new houses at VA and military medical centers with the greatest need.

THE FISHER HOUSE FOUNDATION

Fisher House Foundation also operates the Hero Miles program, using donated frequent flyer miles to bring family members to the bedside of injured service members. Thanks to your generosity, we have provided more than 70,000 tickets to wounded, injured, and ill service members and their families, worth over $105 million. The Hotels for Heroes program uses donated hotel points to allow family members to stay at hotels near medical centers without charge. The Foundation also manages a grant program that supports other military charities and scholarship funds for military children, spouses, and children of fallen and disabled veterans with over $27 million awarded to date.

VETERAN MOM SAYS MARINE SON WAS MIRACLE CHILD

If you talk to Army veteran Pat Sherrod-Elliott about her son, Marine Sgt. Sean Joseph Victor, she tells you, "Our son was actually a miracle."

Sean served eight years in the Marine Corps, traveling to Haiti after a catastrophic earthquake, doing a tour on USS Truman, and living in Japan for two years. He married another service member and had a son.

It was only after his service and starting his own family that Sean and his mother learned he had a genetic disease that usually kills its victims as children.

"When I saw him, I immediately thought that he had had a stroke because he had a different look about him."

Genetic testing eventually revealed ALD, or Adrenoleukodystrophy. The condition damages the membrane that protects the nerve cells in the brain. People born with ALD usually do not make it through childhood, which is what made Sean's case a miracle. It never affected him through his military career.

Pat stayed in the Fisher Houses in Charleston and Bethesda while supporting her son.

"I did not want to travel back and forth every day. It was truly a blessing to have the opportunity to be here in Charleston," she said.

At the Fisher House in Charleston, Pat said she did not have to worry about transportation or meals. It helped her to focus on her son's needs.

"It gave me peace of mind because if I had to travel every day, I think I probably would've lost it because of the stress of his condition," she said, "not knowing exactly what it was, how it was going to affect him, how long it was going to last, what kind of treatment he would need."

AIR FORCE FAMILY SUPPORTS BROTHER WOUNDED IN AFGHANISTAN

August O’Niell’s family is filled with service members and veterans. He and his brother are Air Force pararescuemen and his mom, dad, and stepdad are all Air Force veterans, so the family knew the risk of getting the call that no one wants.

Still, they all remember where they were when they got the news that August, while attempting to pull a wounded soldier out of a firefight, suffered leg wounds from a burst of machinegun fire in Afghanistan.

Robert was able to get news that his brother was alive, but it was bad. His unit immediately got him a flight to Landstuhl, Germany for him to be with August.

As a pararescueman, he had some medical knowledge and, when he saw the leg wounds, knew that August was in for a tough recovery. He sent news back to the family and, exhausted, settled into the hospital room to be close to his brother. He even presided over August’s re-enlistment in the hospital. He stayed there for about two days, sleeping in the chair before being told about Fisher House.

“I’m sitting there, concerned about what August’s life is going to be like after this. When I initially heard Fisher House, I didn’t know what that was. I honestly initially just thought ‘We’re going to the barracks. Fine.’”

Instead, Robert was ushered into the Landstuhl Fisher House where he was able to get food as he went to and from the hospital, a safe place to stay near August, and comfort.

“I felt like I was surrounded by family because everyone else in there was dealing with something like this. Right? So when I passed someone in the hall, the conversation felt very natural. It wasn’t like talking to a random stranger. I knew the person that I was engaging with in the hall that day or at the kitchen, or who was offering me some dinner that they had just made, I knew that they were there for the same purpose that I was, that there was an injured family member in the hospital.

SCHOLARSHIP CASH CALL

Fisher House Foundation, Inc., an IRS recognized 501(c)(3) charity, administers the Scholarships for Military Children program. Commissary business partners and others donate to Fisher House Foundation, Inc., which treats each contribution as a “restricted donation.” Fisher House Foundation, in turn, contracts with “Scholarship Managers,” a professional scholarship management firm, to evaluate the applications and select the best qualified as recipients.

Additionally, Fisher House Foundation matches all donations, dollar for dollar, and does not charge for its services, to include the costs of administration and the cost of the scholarship management contract. For school year 2023-24, there will be 500 recipients selected, and each will receive a $2,000 scholarship grant.

You can contribute to the fund tonight during our cash call or donate direct on our website at apgfisherhousegala.com/scholarship-cash-call.

MEET A SCHOLARSHIPS FOR MILITARY CHILDREN GRANT RECIPIENT

Shortly after Noelle Nafus was born in December 2001, her dad, Marine Corps Col. Matthew Nafus, was deployed twice, once to Pearl Harbor for a year and then to Iraq for a year. During her senior year of high school, her dad was called to active duty twice more. As the Marine Emergency Preparedness Liaison Officer for New York, New Jersey, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands, he was first called up to help with the COVID-19 crisis and again for the 2020 hurricane season.

Noelle is one of 500 recipients of the Fisher House Foundation's Scholarships for Military Children scholarship grant. The program, designed for kids just like her, is in its 20th year supporting children of military service members and veterans and is administered in partnership with the Defense Commissary Agency. Each awardee receives a $2,000 scholarship.

Noelle will attend Barnard College of Columbia University in New York.

"It means a lot. Any help I can receive, I'm so grateful for," said Noelle. "This is definitely going to help me."

"I'm super excited to get involved on the Columbia campus and I was thinking about joining the Columbia Daily Spectator, which is the newspaper," she said. "I love to sing so I was hoping to get involved in some choirs and a capella groups and different things like that."

"I'm really proud of him," said Noelle of her dad. "I don't remember what it was like for him to be on active duty, so this was really the first time for me. It's hard, because I miss him, but I'm so proud of him for helping out in any way he can."

"I'm just so happy to have this opportunity and definitely the scholarship to go to my dream school," said Noelle.

FALLEN HEROES TABLE

This small table ...

- ... honors the many members of our armed forces – our heroes -- who answered the call of duty but were unable to return home. It is deliberately placed before our nation's colors as a special place of honor.
- ... symbolizes the presence of their loving spirit; they will never be forgotten.
- ... is set and reserved for one to honor each of our missing and fallen loved ones.
- ... is round to represent the everlasting concern for those missing and fallen comrades.

The white tablecloth... symbolizes the purity of our heroes' intention to respond to their country's call to arms.

The single red rose... reminds us of the life and love of each hero and the sacrifices that they made for this country.

The yellow ribbon... tied so prominently on the vase, symbolizes remembrance for the families and loved ones who keep the memories of our brothers and sisters alive.

The solitary candle... stands proud, straight, and tall ... just like our comrades and symbolizes the ultimate sacrifice that our fallen comrades and their families have made to preserve our precious freedom.

FALLEN HEROES TABLE

The slice of lemon on the plate... reminds us of their bitter fate.

The salt upon the table... symbolizes the tears shed by families as they have endured the sorrow of their loved ones' fate.

The inverted glass... symbolizes that our heroes are with us in spirit but cannot raise a glass to toast with us tonight.

The chair... leans forward against the table and represents a reserved space for each of our heroes.

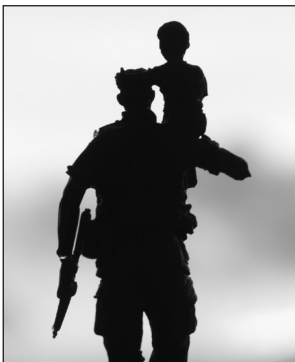

Please take a moment this evening to remember these brave men and women who have made "the ultimate sacrifice."

We also ask that you keep their families and loved ones in mind tonight as we continue our cause to support the Fisher House Foundation's mission to provide a "home away from home" for military families so that they can be near their loved ones during hospitalizations for illness, disease, or injury.

Thank you for your support!

Sincerely,
